Sometimes i cry, sometimes i die for you Sometimes i try, sometimes i lie For you And at the end of the day i feel broken Cause it's been a couple of days since we've spoken I don't know why, but i'd give my life for you Put it all on a line, i'd jump in a fire for you When you're lonely at night, i'm there on a dime for you And after all that you said, i was hopin' That you'd be here in my bed, but i'm copin' I don't know why, but i'd give my life for you You said, you would care You said, you'd be there (matter of fact) You said, you'd be here So how come you're not here

Lonely again, so lonely again How'd i get so lonely again How'd i get so lonely again I said i'm lonely again (i'm so lonely)
How'd i get so lonely again (i'm so lonely)
Think i'm lonely again (i'm so lonely)
Won't you come hold me again
