Gnash

[Gnash:]

I don't fuck with no rumours
Girl, I know you're the truth
So fuck whatever it is you heard
Cause I ain't me without you
So tell me the lies they told you first
Cause that shit ain't nothing new
Cause I don't fuck with no rumours
I don't fuck with no rumours
No, no

I love to make you less lonely
Fuck everything that they told me
I want the old you that loved the old me
Right here, right now; what's the story?
Love me or leave me alone
I know I'm not all you know
We woke out our past, God, I hope this lasts
But if we clash let me know
People talk about me like it's nothing
But inside I've got all of these problems
People make 'em happen
By spreading rumours and bullshit
And that's why I got 'em
If I share all of my secrets
Promise me that you will keep 'em close
And if we're diving in the deep end
I need to share all my demons

[Mark Johns:]

I don't fuck with no rumours
Boy, I know you're the truth
So fuck whatever it's you heard
Cause I ain't me without you
So tell me the lies they tell you first
Cause that shit ain't nothing new
Cause I don't fuck with no rumours
I don't fuck with no rumours
No, no

A little blue bird once said to me
That boy will make you lonely
People talk too much
When they talk to nobody
I've seen your type 'round here before
Your type's the type that I ignore
Usually, but something 'bout you is
New to me, got through to me
And I know what they say about you
But I know that you'll change
I don't doubt you, I'm all about you
I'll fight for you, I'll shout you out, I'll ride with you
They'll bring us up and we'll hold it down
And I'll side with you

[Gnash & Mark Johns:]

I don't fuck with no rumours

I know you're the truth
So fuck whatever it's you heard
Cause I ain't me without you
So tell me the lies they tell you first
Cause that shit ain't nothing new
Cause I don't fuck with no rumours
I don't fuck with no rumours
No, no, no, no
