

You're Your Worst Enemy

Go Betty Go

I laughed at you
You grinned so nervously
You're frightened of me.
You're scared to tell me
What you really think
What's really on your mind?
I didn't know, but now I've learned
I'm laughing now
It's so funny to me
'Cause your conscience won't stop
Bugging you
You're so easy to read
I can't help but think

You're your worst enemy
You're your worst enemy
You're your worst enemy
So why don't you let me be ?

You think you can change
If you wanted to
But you're stuck you see
If you think you are fine
It's just a lie
Selfish as can ? be.
In the end, you're like the rest
Still lost at sea
And the storm you fear
Is only you, so let it be ?
And let go of me

You're your worst enemy (c'mon)
You're your worst enemy (you are)
You're your worst enemy ?
(I can't help but think)
