

You probably think I'm foolish and shy
But I only act this way when you walk by

Hi, how are you? and what did you do
That has made me this way?
I don't have a thing to say
When i'm with you i become so jumbled inside
My confidence crumbles
My cleverness dies
When I met you I knew there was something to this
And it's silly, but I thought so in your kiss

I'm trying to say that I'm mean but instead
Your laughing at me because of what I said

Hi, how are you? and what did you do
That has made me this way?
I don't have a thing to say
When I'm with you I become so jumbled inside
My confidence crumbles
My cleverness dies
When I met you I knew there was something to this
And it's silly, but I thought so in your kiss
