Good Love

I know sometimes I push you Say all that I do See if you'll still stay I like to have my way

If I took you for granted
Just know, I never meant it
I'll try to be thoughtful
And make sure my heart's pure

Good love's hard to hold That's why I'm squeezing tight

Sometimes I don't feel you, you don't feel me We're distant, we need space But I'm coming back for you 'Cause you're my true blue

You're a Capricorn, I'm Cancer And sometimes we can't relate But we meet at the center That's where love is tender

You're my first phone call, my best friend You could never be replaced If I'm not there beside you I'm just a hop, skip, a jump away

I question everything It's 10 years and I still can't get it straight Just know that I love you Always thinking of you

Good love's hard to hold That's why I'm squeezing tight Good love's hard to hold That's why I'm squeezing tight

I love that you're so truthful So willing to work it through, you love so brave My passion is your flame I don't want you to change

You kiss me softly under covers And you never make me beg You even say thank you And sorry when you're rude

I love you today in the purest way, in the purest way I love you today in the purest way, in the purest way

Never, never, never, never Never, never, never, never Never been so sure before, no Never, never, never, never Never, never, never, never Never been so pure

Goapele

I love you today in the purest way, in the purest way I love you today in the purest way, in the purest way I love you today in the purest way
