To Mourn And Forever Wander Through Forgotten Doorways

Goatwhore

Screaming chasm into these emptied voids Senses aroused by the undoing of creation Weapons of these vengeful arrangements To coincide with this mass fall of imperium

Immense columns holding up the heavens Collapsing from the might of the choirs below Burrowing hallucination from the infested carrion In this apocalypse for the millennium of the sun

Visualize the final stance of promise as blood pours out of the stars A decay that serves as the portal into the gates of the great a ncients Tides of this distinct neglect awaken those who left behind the pride of liberation Eating their own pulsing hearts in punishment
