144

i want to know thw place where you come from i like to see your face when i wake up i offer me just for yourself wrapped up for you and no one else and no one else could be appreciative be as appreciative of you r charm when you walk you take you time take the tiniest steps when i'm at your side if you feel you're left behind i'll slow down to your pace and we'll be like a tree and we'll grow on and if the world should end with fire and bombs i'd like to be there holding hands with you i'll view the end of the lands and no on else could steal a pie се that big of my heart i want to be with you and we will be toget her i want to be with you and we will live forever