

Custer's Last 1 Nite Stand

Gob

Do you remember late last night?
We were jumping curbs in the parking lot,
we shared some good times and some bad but we always knew...
What he had you know he could never,
never look back to the time that changed everything in his mind

Even one day soon he would look back maybe,
maybe the pain would go away maybe even stay away.
But it makes me scream, ya ya ya. Do you think I could get up o n my own?
I don't think so. Do you think I could find my way back home?
I don't think so. One day soon you will look back maybe,
maybe even lose your head and realize what they said.
When you find yourself looking down and you run around looking for someone,
can't you see?
