

Oh! Ellin what can I do? There is nothing aside from you. I hate to say I'm starting again to try to get you off of my mind I must admit it's so hard to do oh Ellin! With no you by my side I have the chance to land on my own two feet and keep my chin off the ground but now you're gone I bet myself up about it, it sucks without you around, it sucks when you're not around. Oh! Ellin what can I do? There is nothing aside from you. Oh!
Ellin what can I lose? There's nothing aside from you. I trace your steps but I get lost I bet it's what you had in mind and can't you see that all is not well oh! Ellin not since you left me behind. I waste away it's miserable here it's stupid to even try to pretend because when you slip my mind I start to panic, I'm scared to lose you again, I'm scared I'll lose you again.
