

Soda

Gob

Like I knew that you would come to me and we'd run away with all our dreams.

Don't you think that I'd prepare a bit to try to make it all complete.

To run away is not the kind of thing that I do in a normal day, but it's so cool that we're together and we're smiling drinking soda.

I want to jump in a lake.

Sun shining down on a beach in the summer.
