

Happy

God Lives Underwater

Everyday is the same
Since I've been alone
Everyday I wait for you
But you're never coming home

And I hope that you're happy
At least one of us is
Maybe someday you'll see
I need you to save me from myself

Everyday I swear that I see you
Everywhere I go
I know my mind plays tricks on me
And that's something that you know
