

No More Love

God Lives Underwater

I can see, see the signs
I've been waiting here for you
But nothings getting through
I have gone up in the clouds

Praying I can turn, turn myself around
A year ago, I have it a year
I hoped it wouldn't happen, now it's here
It took so long, I can't carry on

I know the reason that you left me
You had nothing more to give me
No more love, I can see, see your eyes
I can feel your heavy stare, I run my fingers through my hair

I am high, as one can be, and I hope I don't come down
I hate when I come down, a month ago, I knew you lied
Took my life into your hands, you just don't understand
How it feels to be free
You know the reason that you left me, you had nothing more to give
