God Lives Underwater

I know what it takes to normalize
To slow me down and cut me down to size
I wanna get that feeling to touch the ceiling
So send me reeling, I wanna know

How can I ease my mind, ease my mind?
Yeah, I'm being taken away
I'm feeling that I'm finding my way
To something that's completely overwhelming me

I get tired of most everything
I anxiously await the gifts you bring
I spend my time thinking and I hate thinking
To stop this thinking I want to know

How can I pass the time, pass the time?
