

Weaken

God Lives Underwater

Here I am, understand, no one sees
How I feel, how's it feel to be free
Why does everything come true
The way I don't want it to?

Everyone and everything
Pushing me to weaken
Feel like I am sinking
Wish that I could push this all away

Please you remember
I will never be the same
Please you remember
I will always be ashamed

Here I am back again
In the trees

Now I'm lost
And I've lost what was me
How could anyone give me
What I want and what I need?

Everyone and everything
Pushing me to weaken
Feel like I am sinking
Wish that I could push this all away
