

The Ones We Love

God Module

Love creates something that wasn't there before...

Knowing for so long
But still never deciding
Exactly what you want

Could it be that you're still afraid
Of the shadows on the wall
That we once made

Nothing you say is true
Nothing matters to you
We only hurt the ones we love

Set aside your fear
You're never leaving here
We only hurt the ones we love

Now that the night knows
The way to your heart
Nothing in this broken world
Will ever tear us apart

Now that the rosary burst
Your innocence is lost
Nothing in this worthless world
Will ever tear us apart

A new procedure
To recognize the truth of what we are
Cold reflections
Only memories remain
Our losses and relationships
Don't forget our pain

Nothing you say is true
Nothing matters to you
We only hurt the ones we love

Set aside your fear
You're never leaving here
We only hurt the ones we love

Now that the night knows
The way to your heart
Nothing in this broken world
Will ever tear us apart

Now that the rosary burst
Your innocence is lost
Nothing in this worthless world
Will ever tear us apart

Love creates something that wasn't there before...

Now that the night knows
The way to your heart

Nothing in this broken world
Will ever tear us apart

Now that the rosary burst
