

Lies

Godhead

I can stand although my bones are breaking.
Prop me up and see my soul is aching.
Take the dirt upon the ground around me.
Bury me inside the grave I built for you.

Walk into the room - Feel my stare of doom.
Scars that line my face - Lies cannot replace.

I can see through you
And I'll tell you.

All my life I've heard a thousand lies.
Seen myself through someone else's eyes.

Kill you with my words - Get what you deserve.

I can see through you
And I'll tell you.

All my life I've heard a thousand lies.
Seen myself through someone else's eyes.

Remember what you did to me?
For you know I won't forget.
Now you've broken everything.
Is your heart filled with regret?

All my life I've heard a thousand lies.
Seen myself through someone else's eyes.
All my life I've heard a thousand lies.
Seen myself through someone else's eyes.

Remember what you did to me?
For you know I won't forget...
