

Cryin' Like a Bitch

Godsmack

Strut on by like a king
Telling everybody they know nothing
Long live what you thought you were
Time ain't on your side anymore, anymore

And so you tell me I can take my chances
But I told you one too many times and you were cryin' like a bi tch

I'm tougher than nails, I can promise you that Step out of line and you'll get bitch slapped back
And you can run your little mouth all day
But the hand of God just smacked you back into yesterday

And so you tell me I can take my chances
But I told you one too many times and you were cryin' like a bi
tch
And you wonder why no one can stand you
And there's no denying you were cryin' like a bitch

You were cryin' like a bitch

Blinded by your sacred faded past times
Only time is your enemy
Granted a second chance to prove that your arrogance
Is stronger than you'll ever be

It's stronger than you can be
Oh, stronger than you can be
Oh, stronger than you can be

And so you tell me I can take my chances
But I told you one too many times and you were cryin' like a bi
tch
And you wonder why no one can stand you
And there's no denying you were cryin' like a bitch

You were cryin' like a bitch
You were cryin' like a bitch
You were cryin' like a bitch
Oh, bitch
