

Generation Day

Godsmack

Revelations of the mind
Destination changing all the tides
Hate the way, speed of light
Innocent cannot feel this fight or get it right

Falling away, a generation dies
And going in to the new times
Generation day, shot!

Situation coming strong
Premonition, spinning worlds along
Don't you see, it's do or die
Cannot be dead, cannot tear it down to make it right

Falling away, a generation dies
And going in to the new times
Generation day, shot!

Shot!
Falling away, a generation dies
And going in to the new times
Generation day, shot!
Generation day, shot!
