

I Just Realized

Gogol Bordello

I just realized that I'm dying to see you
And hear you all over again and again
When did it started?
On which exact moment?
Oh, I don't know and I hope it will end
Maybe tomorrow but probably never
In this world of obsession I helplessly fall
Feeling disguising, so polarizing
Where is the exit?
Of course there is none...

Chorus:
When did it started
On which exact moment
In this world of obsession
I helplessly fall
Feeling disguising and so polarizing
And where's the exit?
Of course there is none...

When a body is burning with fever
Of the voodoo force
What is it that's really burning?
Parts of you if course!
Is it because I'm russian?
Is it because you're not?
Oppa snova puta madre vsyo naoborot

Chorus
