

Only Pain

Gojira

Since day one you try your best
To get what you need the most
The solution is you, becoming a god

Only pain, all in vain

The day you get to the point
All illusions are lost
The problem is you, becoming so cold

Just wanted to be good
Just wanted to be gold
Just wanted to be god
Just wanted to be

Only pain, all in vain

Take all, fear none
Wake up, go strong

I'm the lamb who was slain
It's just another offering
I reclaim the might and power
Cast away long before dawn
In a cage left to rot
Creature fierce, tamed, is dying
Lost the feel for all I've loved
It's too strong, I'm going down
