Dong-Dong-Di-Ki-Di-Gi-Dong

Golden Earring

Dong dong diki digi dong And your heart goes dong diki digi dong You gotta sing it, oh everywhere In New York City, Memphis, Delaware We'll sing it loud, And you'll be proud To sing it with me until eternity So you hear this melody Well sing it along and you'll feel free You feel uptight and upside-down Well sing it along and join me around Dong dong diki digi dong And your heart goes dong diki digi dong You gotta wear a pair of ugly old jeans To dance in California, Nashville, New Orleans You gotta swing and you gotta move me You gotta make me feel glad You gotta make me feel groovy So you hear this melody Well sing it along and you'll feel free You feel uptight and upside-down Well sing it along and join me around Dong dong diki digi dong And your heart goes dong diki digi dong
