Golden Earring

She weighs her words on a silver tongue
While she cradles the phone, moves through the room
I can hear her lightin' a cigarette
But so far she said nothin' yet
Oh, they say that your love is poison
I think that it's just uncommon
Jane Jane

There's a dark side to you that turns me on I wish I knew where it's comin' from You're like a Spanish dancer on a TV set You hide a rattlesnake under your dress They say that your love is poison I say that it's just uncommon Jane Jane Jane Don't make the same mistake again Jane Jane Don't break the chain That ties you to my heart Jane Jane Jane, listen babe It's not a game anymore

I'm gonna throw myself in a wishing well I'm gonna go spin-dizzy on a carrousel Gonna gonna drown myself in the pouring rain And wash up on some far away shore again They say that your love is poison I can't do without it darlin' Jane Jane Jane Don't make the same mistake again Jane Jane Don't break the chain, that ties you to my heart Jane Jane Jane, you've gotta listen to me babe Jane Jane Oh Jane, you've gotta start makin' sense baby Jane It's not a game, it's not a game anymore Jane, Jane Don't you know that we've gotta change Jane Jane
