

Love In Motion

Golden Earring

Oh, oh my love's in motion
Yeah, you've got me on the run
Yeah, yeah, yeah, baby 'cross the ocean
That's where daddy points his gun

The truth comes out
Your lies are never fast enough
The truth comes out
Like a pain in your sweet little ass dear

Take a ride on a slow train
Take a good look at your memory
Think it all over again
Make a choice and make sure you've decided

Mmm.., my love's in motion
You've got me on the run
Yeah, yeah, yeah my love's in motion
Everything's upside down

Two fine hearts
They don't cheat, 'cause they're meant to last
Two fine hearts, they bleed when they're torn apart
Do not think I'm a bad boy
Maybe just a little broken toy
I've gotta thank you babe
Before I turn around, turn around

Oh, oh my love's in motion
Yeah, you've got me on the run
Oh, oh baby 'cross the ocean
That's where daddy points his gun

Yeah my love's in motion
Oh, you've got me on the run
Yeah yeah baby 'cross the ocean
That's where daddy points his gun
My love's in motion
Everything's upside down
