See See

Golden Earring

He was the only key She was the only door What more could they please

Her eyes are ponds of blue His wishes all came true What was there to loose in the midnight

See, see, see, he said Seagulls screamin' down in the morning sky Gee, gee, gee, he said Come on girl let's leave this world behind

But then, after weeks
The weeks they got weak
Little did they speak about the future
Her eyes still were blue
But thoughts soon got black
Time that he went back to where he came from

See, see, she said Broken dreams fill the starless night Gee, gee, gee, she said and her tears were sparklin' bright in the mornin' light