

Spirit War

Golden Resurrection

I see the differences,
I hear when people joking,
They don't know,
They are bricks in the game,
Before I lost my temper,
Now I use my wisdom,
Holy Spirit show me how to live

I will fight I will never die,
I will fight and follow the call of my life

Live or die,
Stand or fall,
Beware your heart,
It is a spirit war

It's hard when friendships failing,
The enemy is waiting,
To stamp my heart into the ground,
The wings of freedom calls me,
No surrender,
Reaching high to heaven's victory

I'm here,
Fighting the battle,
Long live the King
(Long live the King)
(Long live the King)
