

20 Cent Goodbye

Goldfinger

Went out today
to try and phone you I guess you didn't recognize my call
the lady on your end
said you got caller I.D.
but I'm feeling sorry that you've been woken up so much
and I'm feeling guilty
just talk to me
please talk to me

I hardly know you
is it too late to even try I want to know you
another twenty cent goodbye

I found a pay phone
and it's busted
another broken hearted fool but still I pick up the receiver my lips are touching someone's drool
please make this worth it you're all I'm thinking of today I know you're worth it
just talk to me

goodbye
another twenty cent goodbye
another twenty cents
