Dad

Goldfinger

Dad, I hate to tell ya Sometimes I wanna slap you in the face But Dad, I gotta tell ya If you were gone I'd miss you from this place

Don't go away again I just wanna be your friend And if I don't say this now I'm gonna be sorry Don't wanna make this same mistake again

Dad, I need to tell ya Sometimes I wanna walk right out the door But Dad, I'm gonna tell ya I'm glad that we don't argue like before

Don't go away again I just wanna be your friend And if I don't say this now I'm gonna be sorry Don't wanna make the same mistake again

Dad, I need to tell ya Sometimes its hard to show you how I feel Dad, I'm gonna tell ya I wish that all our differences weren't real

Don't go away again I just wanna be your friend And if I don't say this now I'm gonna be sorry Don't wanna make the same mistake again

I see the older that I get I'm becoming you I see the older that I get I'm becoming, I'm becoming you!

Dad I wanna tell ya I just wanna take away your pain
