

If Only

Goldfinger

If only I was taller
If I had a million dollars
maybe then you'd be with me

If only I was eighteen and had the courage of the A-Team
maybe then you'd be with me

But for now I'll have to dream about your smile 'cause you're not here and all I want to say is that I really miss you

If I could surf a little better
If I had Sumner's sweater
maybe then you'd be with me

If only I had more time
If I had Mike Ness' hairline then you'd want to be with me

If only you weren't so fine
If only I wasn't so blind I'd find a way to make you stay then maybe I'd see you

If I woke up with all these things Would it even change your feelings
None of that is even me But for now I'll have to wait another week to see your face and all I want to say is that I really miss you
