

Blue Moon Rising

Gomez

Come on all my people
Come one and all
One and all
If your one the people right there right then
You bet a ladies dead and they're appalled
They're appalled
Come into my palace
Come and see my hollow walls
The servants crawl

It's gonna be a blue moon rising
Rising one and all
Some people like that

Your gonna get them with your money
All the chimes get polished bald
And I recall
When I get like a tweedle dee or a tweedle dumb
Plus his sales pitch ain't an equal sum
Ain't gonna be fun
Come into my dream world
A simple smile not a loaded gun
She's a shining sun

It's gonna be a blue moon rising
Rising one and all
One and all

Some people like that
Some people like that
Some people like that

Something like jerking in the moon ligh
There's something like jerking in the moon light
There's something like jerking in the moon light
There's something like jerking in the moon light

It's gonna be a blue moon rising
Rising one and all
One and all
It's gonna be a blue moon rising
Rising one and all

Some people like that
Some people like that
Some people like that
Some people like that
