

Extra Special Guy

Gomez

Well, how do you do?
Do you like the look of me and you together?
So take me out
Spill a little drink on your lap and

She said to me so deep inside
Well, I'm thinkin' that I'm an extra special guy
Takin' it all with an extra pinch of salt
My friends seem to think that I'm the one now

You're only teasin' me now
I'm not so laid back that I wouldn't try

Well, how do you do?
Would you like me to?
I'm not suggestin'b that I want you, but I'll take you out, spill a little drink down my back and

She said to me so deep inside
Well, I'm thinkin' that I'm an extra special guy
Takin' it all with an extra pinch of salt
My friends seem to think that I'm the one now

You're only teasin' me now
I'm not so laid back that I wouldn't try
You're only teasin' me now
I'm not so laid back that I wouldn't try

Too much, too soon
Are you made outta stone?
Or are you made outta gold?
I'll be no clearer
When I'm wrinkled an' old
When I'm wrinkled an' old

She said to me so deep inside
Well, I'm thinkin' that I'm an extra special guy
Takin' it all with an extra pinch of salt
My friends seem to think that I'm the one now

You're only teasin' me now
I'm not so laid back that I wouldn't drive you home
You're only teasin' me now
I'm not so laid back that I wouldn't try
