

Big Machine

Goo Goo Dolls

Ecstasy is all you need
Livin' in the big machine now
Oh, you're so vain
Now your world is way too fast
Nothin's real and nothin' lasts
And I'm aware
I'm in love but you don't care

Turn your anger into lust
I'm still here, but you don't trust at all
And I'll be waitin'
Love and sex and loneliness
Take what's yours and leave the rest
So I'll survive
God, it's good to be alive

I'm torn in pieces
I'm blind and waitin' for
My heart is reelin'
I'm blind and waitin' for you

Still in love with all your sins
Where you stop and I'll begin
And I'll, I'll be waitin'
Livin' like a house on fire
What's you fear is your desire
It's hard to deal
I still love the way you feel

Now this angry little girl
Drownin' in this petty world
And I'm, who you run to Swallow all your bitter pills
That's what makes you beautiful
You're all or not
I don't need what you ain't got

I'm torn in pieces
I'm blind and waitin' for
My heart is reelin'
I'm blind and waitin' for you

I'm blind and waitin' for you
I'm blind and waitin' for you
And I can't believe it's comin' true
God, it's good to be alive
I'm still here an' waitin' for you
And I can't believe it's comin' true
I'm blind and waitin' for you
