

Indestructible

Goo Goo Dolls

I was searching for anything but me
I was waiting for somebody to feel what I feel
I guess everything I knew fell apart
All around me

I was running from something inside of my head
You were the summer gold
I was broken in two, now I can feel it again
Love, I'm half way to whole

I could be the dance on your dark side
You could be the light in my black nights
I could see myself in your wild eyes
If you can take the weight of my soul
We're indestructible
Oh oh-oh oh-oh
Oh oh-oh oh-oh
Oh oh-oh oh-oh
Oh love, we're indestructible

We're so ready for the better things to come
Closing in, claustrophobic, tear it, hit and run
You and me don't belong anymore
Kill the memory

Now we're running from something inside of ourselves
Ah, we are breaking free
'Cause we've been through the worst
Yeah, you live and you learn
Girl, it's just you and me

I could be the dance on your dark side
You could be the light in my black nights
I could see myself in your wild eyes
If you can take the weight of my soul
We're indestructible
Oh oh-oh oh-oh
Oh oh-oh oh-oh
Oh oh-oh oh-oh
Oh love, we're indestructible

You and I, you and I keep believing
You and I, you and I keep believing
You and I, you and I keep believing
You and I, you and I keep believing

You and I, you and I
You and I, you and I keep believing
You and I, I keep believing
You and I, you and I keep believing
You and I, you and I
You and I, you and I keep believing
You and I, I keep believing
You and I, you and I keep believing

I could be the dance on your dark side
You could be the light in my black nights

I could see myself in your wild eyes
If you can take the weight of my soul
We're indestructible
Oh oh-oh oh-oh
Oh oh-oh oh-oh
Oh oh-oh oh-oh
Oh love, we're indestructible
