

Lucky One

Goo Goo Dolls

Another day the city saved us
It gave your heart a place to hide
If all we're counting on is here today and gone tomorrow
I wanna make believe that you remember me

I, I won't forget you
Even if you let me go
I won't regret you
Cause I'm the lucky one
I, I won't forget you
Even if you let me go
I won't regret you
Cause I'm the lucky one

Sometimes our dreams, they will escape us
But we're not sleeping anymore
If all we are is lost, I'll keep you in a memory
And when you close your eyes, you will remember me

I, I won't forget you
Even if you let me go
I won't regret you
Cause I'm the lucky one
I, I won't forget you
Even if you let me go
I won't regret you
Cause I'm the lucky one

You climb so high, you fall too fast
You burn so bright, it just can't last
Doesn't mean so much
No I won't forget
So please, remember me

I, I won't forget you
Even if you let me go
I won't regret you
Cause I'm the lucky one
I, I won't forget you
Even if you let me go
I won't regret you
Cause I'm the lucky one

Cause I'm the lucky one
I, I won't forget you
