

Miracle Pill

Goo Goo Dolls

What I need is to feel incredible
What I need is a real love chemical
Wanna beat like a heart that's painted in gold
(Here we go)
Wanna make these emotions physical
Free the weight of my soul, ethereal
I believe I'm alive, no higher than low
(Here we go)

Baby, would you be my miracle pill?
And I could be somebody else
So sick of living inside myself

All of my life, all of my doubts
All of my ups keep keeping me down
I'm starting all o-, starting all o-, starting all over
All of my fight, all of my fear
All of my darkness leaving me here
I'm starting all o-, starting all o-, starting all over

Wanna feel like a new world crumbling
Wanna feel all my walls come tumbling
Wanna heat that fire burning below
(Here we go)

Baby, would you be my miracle pill?
And I could be somebody else
So sick of living inside myself

All of my life, all of my doubts
All of my ups keep keeping me down
I'm starting all o-, starting all o-, starting all over
All of my fight, all of my fear
All of my darkness leaving me here
I'm starting all o-, starting all o-, starting all over

How long's it gonna take?
How long before I feel it k-k-kicking
Feel it k-k-kicking
How long's it gonna take?
How long before you feel it feel it k-k-kicking
Feel it k-k-kicking

What I need is to feel incredible
What I need is a true love edible
Wanna beat like a heart that's painted in gold
(Here we go)

All of my life, all of my doubts
All of my ups keep keeping me down
I'm starting all o-, starting all o-, starting all over
All of my fight, all of my fear
All of my darkness leaving me here
I'm starting all o-, starting all o-, starting all over

All of my life, all of my doubts
All of my ups keep keeping me down

I'm starting all o-, starting all o-, starting all over
All of my fight, all of my fear
All of my darkness leaving me here
I'm starting all o-, starting all o-, starting all over
