- 1. When you came back I knew you'd have a story You need someone to ease the pain of living life You're like a soldier in the fray seeking shelter From all the madness that you've seen, raining down now
- R: I know things change, your world has slipped away
 I know things change, you're living like a
 Soldier caught in the fray
 Don't lose your faith
 It's not so cold, it's not too late
- 2. When you were naive you were so invincible And you laughed at anyone and anything that ever got in your way But now the mirror shows the change, and you don't see that You're sinking back into the crowd, an echo faded
- R: I know things change...
- *: And I never thought I'd see You living on your knees A slave to some disease

That holds you captive
And you can look inside of me
But the answers that you seek
And everything you need

Is all inside you

R: I know things change...
