

You Never Know

Goo Goo Dolls

You never know
Some folks think the world just moves too slow
But was it you?
Who told me I'm your everything

You hit me like I never felt before
(hit me like I never felt before)
Hit me like a sucker punch, you're rotten to the core
You know you hit me like I've never felt before
Silly for the last time

You never take
A promise from a man who sheds his skin
You had to wait
For my achin' heart to break

You hit me like I never felt before
(hit me like I never felt before)
Hit me like a sucker punch, you're rotten to the core
You know you hit me like I've never felt before
Silly for the last time

Now everyone gets angry
And I feel it when you're holdin' me
But in the right place, at the right time, to the right degree
It's a breeding ground
For the pain I've found
From dealin' with your scene
You know that ain't easy
That ain't easy
That ain't easy
That ain't easy

You hit me like I never felt before
(hit me like I never felt before)

You hit me like I never felt before
(hit me like I never felt before)

I'm silly for the last time
