

Cold Song

Good Charlotte

I want you to know, you're not alone
Everything you are and everything you're not
When happiness dies and the pain, it will come
Life's funny, it's a game we play
You know we run

I wonder when I get back home
Is there really any way of knowing
If I did this right
Cause I'm just not sure if I'm ready for it
And should I even try it out
If I don't know where I'm going
So I close my eyes, and I say my prayers
Maybe life will show me

Are you looking out? Are you looking in?
Where does this start? And where does it end?
The night can get so dark, in this dream we're living in
Where does this start? Tell me where does it end

The universe is hard sometimes
Just like an angry mother
Then your life can be so hard sometimes
We gotta hold on to each other

Are you looking out? Are you looking in?
Where does this start? And where does it end?
The night can get so dark, in this dream we're living in
Where does this start? Tell me where does it end

I wonder when I get back home
Is there really any way of knowing
If I did this right
Cause I'm just not sure if I'm ready for it
And should I even try it out
If I don't know where I'm going
So I close my eyes, and I say my prayers
Maybe life will show me

I want you to know, you're not alone
Everything you are and everything you're not
When happiness dies and the pain, it will come
Life's funny, it's a game we play
You know we run
