

Reason to Stay

Good Charlotte

Woke up a million miles away from who I am
Like when we stayed up every Saturday 'til 4am
But the times they change around here, don't they?
Cause some things never change, like the things you say

I keep searching for a reason to stay
And everything you do just pushes me away
I'm gon' keep on trying cause we've been here before
I'm gon' keep on trying cause I said I won't let you go again
So I'm just searching for a reason to stay right here

Woah-oh-oh-oh, woah-oh-oh-oh, oh-oh
Give me a reason to stay
Woah-oh-oh-oh, woah-oh-oh-oh, oh-oh
Give me a reason

Woke up a million miles away from who we were
I really thought I had it made, yeah, I was sure
But the times they change around here, don't they, babe?
I got my mind made up and I'm staying right here, babe

I keep searching for a reason to stay
And everything you do just pushes me away
I'm gon' keep on trying cause we've been here before
I'm gon' keep on trying cause I said I won't let you go again
So I'm just searching for a reason to stay right here

All of the things we said
They keep running around
Around in my head
Around in my head
Oh, all of the things we said
Keep on running around
Around in my head
Around in my head again, again, again
Now I can let go

I keep searching for a reason to stay
And everything you do just pushes me away
I'm gon' keep on trying cause we've been here before
I'm gon' keep on trying cause I said I won't let you go again
So I'm just searching for a reason to stay right here

Woah-oh-oh-oh, woah-oh-oh-oh, oh-oh
Give me a reason to stay
Woah-oh-oh-oh, woah-oh-oh-oh, oh-oh
Give me a reason to stay
