My Best Friends

Good Clean Fun

I love Annie and Amy and Emily, I hope every lesbian learns to play guitar, But when it comes to special rights like family, I think marriage goes a bit too far.

We're pushing and pushing, Still never forget, True equality, it hasn't happened yet, But don't point your finger at me, Take a look at my friends and you'll see.

Stereotypes aren't for me, But I never said life was fair, Diversity makes us all free, And somebody needs to cut hair.

Look, I am a liberal guy, I wear a ribbon, no one deserves to die, You can tell I don't support the status quo, Because
