

Heresy, Hypocrisy and Revenge

Good Riddance

look at what you've left for me
Now that you've moved on Won't pass for therapy
Just one more scar that's never gone
You tried to break me down
Time and time again
Rejection feels to scream
But I can't make a sound
It's me you tried to hide
As I hold you in my arms
As I feel your body broken
Is this just a dream?
Disappointment follows me
Its always just behind
Self-doubt bred solitude
Frustration robs me blind
No pain no part of me
I have grown numb and cold
Self-centered fantasy
Obsessed with self control
This is your worst fucking nightmare
One chance a clean break
Much more than I can take Lies cast shadows dark things nobody knows
You've lost who's won?
My revenge has just begun
I've just begun
And I'm coming home
