

Remember When

Good Riddance

I wanna did you know
Called up you a hundred times today
Think I was to proud to say
No I try not to
'Cause it tears me up inside
'Cause I missing you
And everything around is remind me of you

Do you remember when
We were more than friends?
Born as a selfish staying up all night
I wanna make you mine
Somewhere sometime
But I'm tell you that you're one in a million

Years have falling well
Telling myself I was off for you
Time to move on it's something new
Now I see your pretty face
3000 miles away from me
You are one
You're my source, my inspiration

Do you remember when
We were more than friends?
Born as a selfish staying up all night
I wanna make you mine
Somewhere sometime
But I'm tell you that you're one in a million

Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah, Yeah,

Do you remember when
We were more than friends?
Born as a selfish staying up all night
I wanna make you mine
Somewhere sometime
But I'm tell you that you're one in a million yet
