

All In My Head

Good Shoes

I'm a talented artist but my hearts not in it
I'm a good shag but I find nobody fit
I play in a band but I've got no talent
I spit and I drawl but I just don't change a thing
It's all in my head all my hopes and my fears
And I lay it all out all for you all to see and it's
All in my head
I work 9-5 but I want to get out
I watch the tv but I want to be an inspiration
I write it all down but nobody reads
You never will and it's so obscene
