All In My Head

Good Shoes

I'm a talented artist but my hearts not in it I'm a good shag but I find nobody fit I play in a band but I've got no talent I spit and I drawl but I just don't change a thing It's all in my head all my hopes and my fears And I lay it all out all for you all to see and it's All in my head I work 9-5 but I want to get out I watch the tv but I want to be an inspiration I write it all down but nobody reads You never will and it's so obscene
