

Serpent Queen Pt. 2

Goodnight Nurse

There's a rattle at the window
All too familiar sound that I know
She's back and she's ready to go
Ready to take me down below
Everybody in the whole town knows
She lives with a heart so cold
But I'll stay, I'll stay
I'll stay, I'll stay

And if I hear calling
I fear that I am falling
Now they all try to warn me
Oh no she's ready to go
And if I hear calling
I fear that I am falling
Now they all try to warn me
Oh no she's ready to go

There's a rattle at the window
All too familiar sound that I know
She's back and she's ready to go
Ready to take me down below
Everybody in the whole town knows
She lives with a heart so cold
But I'll stay, I'll stay
I'll stay, I'll stay

And if I hear calling
I fear that I am falling
Now they all try to warn me
And if I hear calling
I fear that I am falling
Now they all try to warn me

I feel this sickness grow inside me
Black out the sky so she won't find me
I feel this sickness grow inside me
She can blind me take my life

And if I hear calling
I fear that I am falling
Now they all try to warn me
And if I hear calling
I fear that I am falling
Now they all try to warn me
Oh no she's ready to go
