Jessi-Jo said you had better not go, Jessi-Jo said you had better not go. Jessi-Jo says you better think twice, understand and take my ad vice. Oh, Jessi-Jo, where did you go? I'm leaving town tonight. Jessi-Jo, I need you now, do you feel all right? Do you feel a ll right? Jessi-Jo said you had better not stray, you have only promises. Jessi-Jo said you had better stay home from the ice fields far away. Oh, Jessi-Jo, where did you go? Polar bear on my right. Jessi-Jo, I need you now, I'm flying blind tonight, flying blin d tonight. Jessi-Jo said you had better not go to the place with the snow and the ice. Jessi-Jo said you had better beware, understand and take my advice. Oh, Jessi-Jo, where did you go? There's an oil rig on my right. Jessi-Jo, I need you now, flying blind tonight, flying blind to night. Jessi-Jo said you had better not stray, all we have are promises. Jessi-Jo said you had better stay home from the ice cap far away. Oh, Jessi-Jo, where did you go? Polar bear on my right. Jessi-Jo, I need you now, flying blind tonight.
