

The Circle Is Small

Gordon Lightfoot

It's alright for some, but not alright for me
When the one that I'm lovin' slips around You think it's fine to do things I cannot see
And you're doin' it to me Baby, can't you see that I know how it is

I can see it in your eyes and feel it in the way you kiss my li ps
I can hear it in your voice whenever we are talking like this I can see what you believe in when his name is mentioned and I die
I can watch the way you walk, the way you talk, the way you clo se your eyes

It's alright for some, but not alright to be Where the one that I'm lovin' can't be found The city where we live might be quite large But the circle is small Why not tell us all, and then all of us will know

I can see it in your eyes and feel it in the way you kiss my li
ps
I can hear it in your voice whenever we are talking like this
I can see what you believe in when his name is mentioned and I
I can watch the way you walk, the way you talk, the way you clo se your eyes

It's alright to leave, but not alright to lie When you come home and you can't say where you've been
You think it's fine to do things I cannot see
And you're doin' it to me
Baby, can't you see, that I know how it is

ps
I can hear it in your voice whenever we are talking like this
I can see what you believe in when his name is mentioned and I
I can watch the way you walk, the way you talk, the way you clo se your eyes

I can see it in your eyes and feel it in the way you kiss my li
ps
I can hear it in your voice whenever we are talking like this
I can see what you believe in when his name is mentioned and I
I can watch the way you walk, the way you talk, the way you clo

se your eyes
