

Electric Poet

Gorefest

I am driving on the left lane on the highway through my head For fame I gave my soul away and never felt so glad

Electric poet in me
I am not afraid of words
Come and take me
Electric, electric poet in me

I got the gift to play with words in writing, spoken too
A great magician I became so now I'm tricking you

Electric poet in you
Are you afraid of words?
Let me take you
Electric, electric poet in you
