

Prosperity and beauty

Gorgoroth

To much of this force!
The lack of structure!
My life burnt
Reflecting a forest in flames!

Time withdraws
Hard times ahead
The rules are broken
And secrets told out loud!

A portal is open
A portal to happiness
Facing change and growth
Through this poison way
Through knowledge
Through the unwise

The withering of life's pleasures
I become the higher self
Deeper and deeper
Turning
A human mind
With the heart of a god!

GOD!!

Whose arms will I fill with gold
As they whisper of lies to their ears
Lives ending
The distant star
Keeps me thrilled
And never fails
Closing the circle to the time
Reminding
Of to different new beginnings
Prosperity and beauty
