

Big Mouth

Gorilla Biscuits

Friendship, to you it means nothing
Time and time again you betray friends
With lies, and your gossip
The stories you tell can hurt like hell!

It's your big mouth and it's getting on my nerves
You know I wish you'd just shut it up
It's your big mouth and the shit that comes out
Has nothing to do with what you're talking about

You know I want to trust you but I can't
Your word's not given, it's lent
My advice to you, is to start somewhere
Why don't you shut the fuck up now

It's your big mouth and it's getting on my nerves
You know I wish you'd just shut it up
It's your big mouth and the shit that comes out
Has nothing to do with what you're talking about
