

Forgotten

Gorilla Biscuits

Dedicated to your cause look at all the friends you lost. Discarded because I'm no more use. Our tight friendship is hanging loose. Stepping on the people who were getting all the things you wanted. Now you got them, we're forgotten. No need.

For token interest in my life. Don't make amends, don't even try. Guilty Conscience? Maybe not. You just want more of what I got. Stepping on the people who were getting all the things you wanted. Now you got them, we're
forgotten.

Try and think why you carry on this way.
It's not you talking, it's your greed I hear.
Nothing means nothing if you're insincere.

I don't know why you decide I'm not worth calling up. Things have changed between you and me. We don't hang out but that's ok.
